Exclusively offered by FA Aircraft Sales
1995 CESSNA 525 CitationJet

The Cessna CitationJet is a light corporate jet designed as an improvement over its predecessor models, the Citation I and II. This aircraft with registration YU-BUZ and serial number 525-0118 sets the foundation for the Citation CJ family. With a total of 359 aircraft built, the production of the 525 CitationJet ended in 1999.

Serial number 525-0118 is equipped with two powerful Williams FJ44-1A turbofan engines, which provides this CitationJet with good field performance and an impressive cruise speed.

This aircraft has an executive interior with a cabin configured to carry up to six passengers. The interior features four seats in a club arrangement with an additional side-facing seat, and a belted toilet seat located in rear lavatory. The interior also includes fold-out tables, and a small galley located in the front.

If you are looking for a Cessna CitationJet that is ready to fly for a new owner, don't look any further.
